A friend, a foe,
A shoulder to cry on,
An outstanding teacher.
With our best interests at heart,
She listens, she hears, she laughs,
She cries, she works, she
corrects,
She gives, she takes, she understands,
She helps—but best of all, she Loves. To MISS CAROLINE
CASTELLOE
We dedicate the 1971 Olive

Hope

- Hope looks for the good in people instead of harping on the worst.
- Hope opens doors where despair closes them.
- Hope discovers what can be done instead of grumbling about what cannot.
- Hope draws its power from a deep trust in God and in the basic goodness of mankind.
- Hope "lights a candle" instead of "cursing the darkness."
- Hope regards problems, small or large, as opportunities.
- Hope sets big goals and is not frustrated by repeated difficulties or setbacks.
- Hope accepts misunderstanding as the price for serving the greater good of others.

Hope is Deborah King.

This year's book has been a challenge. We have strived to create a unique edition of The Olive Leaves. I feel we have succeeded. For the very first time, most of the photography of the yearbook has been our own (taking, developing and printing of all contacts.) Without the help of Kenn Atkinson this effort would have been impossible. We would also like to thank all other persons involved in the production of this book. Ann Hinnant-Editor

You've seen her before.
Across the face of America. Across the table from you.
She could be your girl, your sister,
your daughter. She's a natural.
And so's that cold Pepsi in her hand. Pepsi belongs,
whether you're sharing good times with friends...
or a quiet moment alone.
Pepsi-Cola... it's got a lot to give.

You've got a lot to live. Pepsi's got a lot to give.
